Helen C. Branch

DEDICATION

To our librarian, Mrs. Helen C. Braack, whose helpful guidance and unfailing friendliness during the four years of our school work have lightened many of our burdens and endeared her to each one of us, we, the Senior Class, with love and admiration, gratefully dedicate this Crusader for 1932.

FOREWORD

This volume of the Crusader is our endeavor to picture the many events of a year of our high school life. In years to come, may it bring back to you pleasant memories of happy school days and of treasured friendships.

STUDENT CREED

We believe in honest work, in friendly comradeship and in the high courage that leads to right conduct.

We believe that from contact with the truest and best in people, in books, and in life, will come our inspiration for success.

We believe in loyalty to our Woodrow Wilson High School, which was named for a great man and is dedicated to his ideals; we believe in loyalty to our community, the City of Dallas, which has fostered our education and our pleasures; we believe in loyalty to our country, the United States of America, which was founded by great men, has been protected by great men and will always be the producer of great men.

We pledge our allegiance to these three agencies and hope, by our own lives, to make them all stronger and more potent factors in the advancement of humanity.

We publish this, Our Creed, opposite the picture of our principal, G. L. Ashburn, because, by his example and precept, he has helped us to formulate these beliefs.

Parent-Teacher Association of Woodrow Wilson High School

The graduates of 1932 were the first group of Freshmen to enter Woodrow Wilson High School in September, 1928, and we are proud of these boys and girls who represent the first full four years at this new High School.

We, the members of the Parent-Teacher Association, have endeavored to contribute to the welfare and happiness of our students in every way that we could.

We trust that the 1932 graduates are prepared in more ways than one for the business of life in its fullest, broadest sense, and will carry memories of their High School days which hold much joy and happiness.

The R. O. T. C.

We are very proud to say that our Woodrow Wilson military unit is the largest junior R. O. T. C. corps in the United States. Although it is only four years old, this striving regiment of growing boys is passing forward its honors. In this important part of school training, every boy has a chance to learn requirements for success in life, etc. that can not be learned from books. Courtesy and discipline are always stressed in military, and every boy who enters this department is ambitious for leadership. The spirit of this Military Department is that of working together, its aim is honor and glory among the other units, and its product is better young men who hope to work and live for their country.

Lieutenant William Webb Browning

William Webb Browning started to West Point in 1922, but he was sent home after a mastoid operation to rebuild his health and strength. Re-entering, he deferred his graduation another year and graduated in 1928. He made no mistake of building strength and vertness into his body for he started in soccer and hockey and was captain of the Army's baseball team of 1928.

This large military unit was taken in hand by Lieutenant Browning, who came to us as our commandant last September. By devoting his entire interest to the work of the corps and applying the strict West Point rules, he has directed this unit very effectively and has succeeded in building up an excellent morale among the six hundred students under his command.

Sergeant William Forster

Sergeant William Forster is doing fine work as Lieutenant Browning's assistant. By his efficient direction and work, the rifles and supplies have been kept in perfect order. While he was serving in the Spanish American War, he was wounded on San Juan Hill, and later he went to the Philippines during the insurrection there. For several years he was an instructor at Fort Sam Houston. The discipline and rules of the regular army are always right before us for Sergeant Forster is forever among the cadets ready for any correction or instruction.

MISS FRANCES ALEXANDER

MISS MATTIE DELL WEBB

MRS. HANNAH GOLOSTEIN

The enrollment in Woodrow Wilson High continues to increase—and so does the size of our gym classes, so that the classes are large in spite of the fact that we still take this exercise only two and three times a week.

The advanced girls are allowed to choose between sports and dancing classes and seem to enjoy the work unless they have conflicts that make them find in a dancing class after having been in a sports class one term and find that their feet just won't move to music. In spite of the very warm winter the sports classes have had to remain inside a great deal because of the rain and mud, but did manage some soccer in the fall and winter and, in the spring, baseball, outdoor volley ball, and tennis on the new courts.

We have all noticed that unless we are careful we begin to get round-shouldered from curving so many books and leaning over desks, but some of us have been working to avoid this. The girls doing individual and corrective work were quite interested to note a great improvement and most of them worked hard to correct their posture, paying to shame a number of girls who continued to let their shoulders droop.

We had a number of outside activities, such as tennis, skating, swimming, and horse-back riding, so that every girl could find something to her liking. The Riding Club was one of the most popular and the girls who rode regularly became quite expert.

All in all, we found variety and fun in our work this year.

ORGANIZATIONS

CLUBS

Senior Honor Council

MRS. HELEN C. BRAACK . . . . . Sponsor

The Library Senior Honor Council is composed of honor students of the senior class, selected semi-annually by the president and approved by the faculty. The selection of members is based not only upon scholarship but also upon leadership and competence. The Council's aim is to guide and help other students in the use of the library and to maintain order and efficiency. This group, supported by its able sponsor, Mrs. Helen C. Braack, is largely responsible for the highly modern and efficient Library. The Council was the first to introduce the student government idea at Watson. The Council, however, is not entirely a business organization, for the year's program includes numerous pleasure jaunts and parties not pertaining to work at school.

ATHLETICS

Our Coaches

For three years Herschel Forester has ably coached the Woodrow Wilson Wildcats. He is a man greatly admired by the entire student body, as well as the football squad, for his friendliness and his high standards of sportsmanship. Each team he has turned out has been victorious from a moral standpoint, since he always stressed the great value of clean living and right thinking.

Assistant Coach Wade Thompson is the valuable trainer of the Wildcat basketball squad and the victorious track team, always instilling in his men the realization of true sportsmanship.

Assistant Coach Howard Kitchen, a most welcome newcomer, has taken into his capable hands the shaping of the baseball nine.

Assistant Coach Bailey Hargraves not only backs the forceful tennis team, but also puts over the large ticket sales for all athletic events.

With these four men, Woodrow Wilson High expects to make athletic history.

SCHOOL SONG

Woodrow Wilson, our Woodrow Wilson, Woodrow Wilson,
We're all for you;
We will fight for the Gray and Crimson,
For the glory of our high school.

Never daunted, we cannot falter;
In the battle, we're tried and true.
Woodrow Wilson, our Woodrow Wilson, Woodrow Wilson,
We're all for you.

H. C. GREENFIELD

One feature which cannot be neglected in our athletic contests is that of raising the necessary money to cover the expenses incidental to their production. Frances Schulz and H. C. Greenfield were each awarded a sweater for selling the most tickets to games during the football season. We congratulate them on their success and thank them for help to our team. Below is a picture of a part of our rooting section at one of our 1932 games.

The Season

WOODROW WILSON 13—McKINNEY 0

Opening the '31 football season with a bitterly fought contest, the Wildcats emerged victorious over the McKinney Lions with a score of 13 to 0.

The game, played under a steaming sun, was slow but not entirely without thrills, as Pete Stanley, diminutive Wildcat back, starred with a 60-yard run through the entire Lion team. Bob Webb, captain, had the honor of scoring Wilson's first touchdown of the season.

WOODROW WILSON 0—LUBBOCK 25

The Wildcats traveled about 400 miles to Lubbock, where the open play proved very successful against the Wildcats. In this battle, Pete Stanley and Orlando had slight injuries. In the fourth quarter, the Wildcats made their only threat to score, but were turned back and returned home with the consolation that they had been in a real football battle anyway.

WOODROW WILSON 6—WACO 34

In this nocturnal game between the Wildcats and Waco, the coaches found a new machine. Bob Webb, Bob was switched from his end position to the backfield, where he played stellar ball. He took the ball from the shadows of his own goal and put it across for the Wildcats' only counter of the conflict.

WOODROW WILSON 7—TECH 0

By downing the Tech Wolves 7 to 0, the Wildcats opened the City Series with a promising outlook for a successful season. The Triple W's, rated as underdogs in the current race, soundly outplayed and out-fought the Wolves throughout the entire melee.

Bob Webb, Wilson's flame-headed captain, was the scintillating star of the contest, as he repeatedly crashed through the Tech line and finally scored the winning touchdown.

Parry and Winters played fine football for the Wildcats.

WOODROW WILSON 13—SUNSET 6

The Wildcats' second game in the District Six Contest was a glorious triumph over the Browns, the score being 13 to 6 in Wilson's favor. The Triple-W Warriors had things pretty much their own way. Webb, aided by his running mates, Winters, Collier, and Beal, made two touchdowns and kicked one goal.

---

---

---

WOODROW WILSON 28—NORTH DALLAS 0

With a final score of 28 to 0, the powerful Woodrow Wilson Wildcats soundly defeated the North Dallas Bulldogs. Wilson's fighting captain, Bob Webb, was taken out of the game early in the second period with an injured knee. Bert, Collic, Passmore, and Winters starred in the backfield. The spectators received a thrill when Fred Passmore intercepted a North Dallas pass on his own ten-yard line and ran 90 yards for a touchdown.

WOODROW WILSON 6—HIGHLAND PARK 20

Led by "Red" Webb, the Wildcats flashed a brand of ball that could not be denied. On successive line plunges the Wilson team, with Webb carrying, plunged to the Highlander seven-yard line and from there scored the first marker of the game.

The Highlanders, with Amis and Starzell carrying the ball, scored in the second, third and fourth quarters to hand Wilson team its first defeat in the district race.

WOODROW WILSON 0—OAK CLIFF 7

The fighting Wildcats, minus the services of Webb, held the Oak Cliff Leopards scoreless until the last quarter, when, aided by two seven-yard penalties, they pushed over the lone marker of the game.

The Leopards again threatened the Wilson goal in the same period, but the drive ended when Pete Stanley intercepted a pass on the two-yard line. The feature of the game was Collic's sensational punting.

WOODROW WILSON 7—FOREST 19

In their last City Series game of the year, the Wildcats bowed down in defeat to the Forest Lions. The green-clad warriors scored in the first quarter after several line plunges. In the second quarter, the Lions scored two more touchdowns. During the third quarter, the teams played on even terms. Opening a passing attack in the last quarter, the Wildcats netted their only score of this game.

WOODROW WILSON 0—LITTLE ROCK 31

Playing in a cold drenching rain and on a field of red mud, the Wildcats were handed a 31 to 0 defeat by Little Rock High team, State Champions of Arkansas, on Thanksgiving Day.

Wearied by the long trip and hampered by the elements, the Wildcats did not show their real strength. McNatt and Launey starred in the backfield, while Parry and Cantrell stood out on the defense. This game marked the end of the most successful season enjoyed by Wilson in its four years of combat.

FEATURES

Our School Favorites

On the following pages we present the three boys and the three girls who have won the title of School Favorites. This year, in its selection for these positions, the CRUSADER conducted its election on a purely democratic basis. Each student in the school was allowed to nominate three boys and three girls. The names of the six boys and girls receiving the largest number in this nominating vote were listed on a popularity ballot. Again each student was allowed to indicate his choice, and the Annual takes great pride in showing the pictures of these boys and girls who were selected as school favorites by their classmates.

JANUARY SENIOR DANCE

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!

We take pleasure in presenting to you Mr. Homer Rogers, Esquire, Ye Editor of this So-Called Humor Section. We make no effort to explain his Mona Lisa expression. Neither man nor woman has been able to tell whether he is amused or annoyed, in joy or in pain—even he can't remember which emotion was dominant at the time of his shooting. If these pages please you, thank Homer; if these pages bore you, tell Homer; if these pages annoy you, put Homer "on the spot" and let the rest of the management alone!

LOAFER, COME BACK

A Modern Novel

SYNOPSIS

Myrtle Newcome, homely daughter of a manufacturer of dough-nut holes, is desperately in love with John Mannering, Yale '14 letter man, but John does not return her affection. He has lost his heart to Lilly Le Sande, beautiful movie star. Unknown to anyone, but secretly adores "One-Eye" Mope, a second-rate prize-fighter. However, "One-Eye" pays court to Sallie Marx, a waitress, but Sallie goes "that way" over Jimmy Durant, a club dancer, who loves Myrtle, who loves John, who loves Lilly, who loves "One-Eye," who loves Sallie, who loves Jimmy. Now go on with the story.

HE KNEW!

Mr. Cobb dialed his home telephone number.

"Hello," he said. "Is that Mrs. Cobb?"

"Yes."

"This is Berry speaking. I say, dear, will it be all right if I bring home a couple of fellows to dinner?"

"Certainly, darling."

"Did you hear what I said?"

"Yes—you asked if you could bring home a couple of fellows to dinner. Of course you can, dear."

"Sorry, madam," said Mr. Cobb as he hung up. "I've got the wrong Mrs. Cobb."

TO ARMS!

Miss Carter wished to show kindness to Captain Patton, so she sent him the following invitation:

"Miss Carter requests the pleasure of Captain Patton's company at a dinner on Friday evening."

A prompt reply came

"With the exception of three men who, unfortunately, are suffering from measles, Captain Patton's company accepts with pleasure your kind invitation, and will attend your dinner on Friday evening."

HOW PRIZES ARE AWARDED IN BIOLOGY AT WOODROW WILSON HIGH

Billy M. came home from school with a new book under his arm. "It's a prize, mother," he said.

"A prize? What for, dear?"

"For natural history. Teacher asked me how many legs an ostrich had and I said four."

"But an ostrich has two legs."

"I know that now, mother, but the rest of the class said four; so I was nearest."

INEXPERIENCE?

Dear Editor: What does a kiss on the ear denote?"

RE-ENFORCEMENTS'

Jake G. was a bit shy, and after Virginia J. had thrown her arms around him and kissed him for bringing her a bouquet of flowers, he arose and started to leave.

"I am sorry I offended you," Virginia said.

"Oh, I'm not offended," Jack replied.
"I'm just going for more flowers."

Benbrook D.: "And weren't you embarrassed nearly to death?"

James: "Well, not very. My brother had them on."

SOME DOG

They were discussing dogs, and the tales were becoming "pretty tall" when one of the group took the lead.

"Smith," he said, "has a most intelligent retriever. One night Smith's house caught fire. All was instant confusion. Old Smith and wife flew for the children and bundled them out in quick order.

"Alas, one of them had been left behind. But up jumped the dog, rushed into the house, and soon reappeared with the missing child. Everyone was saved; but Rover dashed through the flames again.

"What did the dog want? No one knew. Presently the noble animal reappeared, scorched and burned, with—what do you think?"

"Give it up," cried the eager listeners.

"With the fire insurance policy, wrapped in a damp towel, gentlemen."

HIGH FINANCE

Miss Wilkins: "Since I bought a car I don't have to walk to the bank to make my deposits."

"Ah, you ride there?"

Miss Wilkins: "No, I don't make any."

THE GOLFER'S PARADISE

An enthusiastic golfer recently died and duly arrived at the pearly gates. Being of a friendly disposition he engaged St. Peter in conversation and at last inquired of the Patriarch, "Do you have any golf links in Heaven?"

St. Peter shook his head, making it plain by his puzzled look that he had never heard of them.

"No links!" replied the golfer. "You surely must have a golf course. Why you're not up to date at all."

And he turned sadly away to try his luck in hell.

Coming to the domain ruled by Sathanus he was welcomed by an imp.

"Do you have any golf courses here?" he inquired.

"Certainly," the imp replied. "We have all the modern improvements."

The golfer's face lit up. Here was evidently the abode for him.

"Lead me to it," he urged.

"Yes, sir, right this way, sir," and the imp led him to a distant part of hell. Before the golfer stretched a course more wonderful than any of which he had ever dreamed.

"Fine!" he exclaimed. "Now, son, get me some sticks and balls and I'll have the game of my life."

"We haven't any," the imp replied.

"What!" exclaimed the golfer. "Not any clubs and balls with a course like this?"

"No, sir," replied the imp, grinning fiendishly. "That's where we get our name!"

RUSTIC

Adrian Patton, on entering a drug store and seeing a pay station, placed a nickel in the slot and lifted the receiver.

Operator naturally inquired, "Number, please?"

Adrian: "Number nothing; I want my peanuts."

O, WHY?

Emily Ann: "And if I sit over in that nice dark corner with you, will you promise not to hug me?"

Thomas S.: "Yes."

Emily Ann: "And will you promise not to kiss me?"

Thomas: "Yes."

St.: "And will you promise not to . . ."

He: "Yes."

St.: "Then, what do you want me to go over there for?"

A GOOD SUGGESTION

Mrs. Sparkman: "Very well, now I have a Frigidaire—see what you can do about a mechanical stenographer."

"It has been a pleasure for our Studio to have had the privilege of association with the faculty, students and the Annual Staff of this splendid school.
